Keynote speaker – Brad Barton. He is an honors graduate, NCAA All-American and a 1992 U.S. Olympic Trials qualifier. He is a master magician and a member of the International Brotherhood of Magicians, so he can convince you to believe in something, even if you don't see it.

Got Magic? Are you ready for high impact magical experience with a deeply meaningful message? Brad is an entertaining, energetic speaker. He demonstrates that the techniques magicians use on stage to fool audiences also disguise dangerous illusions in the real world. Whether you are a leader in business or your community, or building a rewarding personal life, he reveals that you already possess that magic you need to enhance your bright and successful future.

List below any questions, problems or items you would like addressed during our question and answer session. All questions presented will be anonymous.
